The NVTBL time limits of no new inning at 1 hour and 50 minutes (weekday and DH's) also apply to games where there are weather delays

- A lightning or rain delay DOES count towards your time limit on when you can start an inning. The only exception to this rule is if there is not a game scheduled after your game--then the game can extend to a drop dead time of 3 hours or up until the light curfew deadline if it is a night game.
- Official Book – The home team shall keep the official book.

If no official eligible substitutes are available, the last batted out may be used as a courtesy runner. A starter who is eligible to reenter the game will be considered an eligible substitute for the purpose of determining a courtesy runner. Under no circumstances shall the same player be allowed to run for both pitcher & catcher in the same inning.
- Balks will be called under NFHS rules. (Exception: during Fall season, 13U divisions and under – umpires shall give 1 warning per pitcher).
